Loomis Basin Charter School

No School for students on Monday 11/9, Tuesday 11/10 & Wednesday 11/11
The Office will be Closed

Direct From the Director...

Tonight's Board Meeting... I have had several people ask me about the Board Meeting tonight at Franklin. There is an item on the agenda with regards to Franklin and LBCS facilities. Mr. Shaw, Franklin's principal and I will be giving update to the Board on how the two schools are interacting. We will be talking about how we deal with traffic, safety drills, the strings program, the garden project, lunchtime, assemblies, and cross-country. This is an informational report to the Board...nothing more.

Jim Weiss... will be here tomorrow to present an assembly for our students. As a storyteller, Jim strives to provide children with a link between classical literature and their own personal life experiences. His connection to his audience is magnetic and interactive, proof positive that storytelling today rejuvenates one of the first and most personal forms of entertainment. He will also be working with the 4th and 5th graders on their own writing skills. Thank you, Gail Owens and PTC for sponsoring this wonderful assembly.

IB visitation... William Broadus from the IB organization will be here for two days next week to help us with our IB application. He will spend time with the teachers helping them develop their planners. Additionally, he will be visiting our classrooms.

Conferences will be held on Nov. 9th... The teachers have scheduled these conferences in family clusters for your convenience. Please make every possible effort to attend.

Holiday...Nov. 11th is a holiday for Loomis Basin Charter School...in honor of Veteran's Day. Additionally, Nov. 9th and 10th are a non-school days. This gives families an opportunity to schedule a five-day holiday! Teachers will be at school on Nov. 10th diligently working on our Planners for IB.

Veteran's Day is on Wednesday... we honor our veterans of today and the past. Everyday should be dedicated to those who have been instrumental in making America a country of freedoms and tolerance

Cindy

Picture Retakes have arrived...
