- II. Volunteers: The volunteers had their yard duty training meeting. There is still some need for yard duty volunteers on Fridays. Right now the children are allowed to play on the grass every other day. Peaceful playground is on its way. In the office, is written rules for the playground.
- III. Dress Code: Issues regarding the dress code was address by SSA. Most families seems to be following the dress code as it was intended.
- IV. Project Updates:
 - 2nd foreign language – Jeannie Thompson has been working on this project. She has researched some grants that could possibly be available. Cindy Uptain will have Jenny Boyer re-look at one of the grants. We also discussed having a town hall meeting for all of the LBCS parents to attend to discuss different avenues for a second foreign language. More information on this meeting will come. January would be the tentative meeting.
 - Music program – Marilee Armstrong has been working on a music program for our school. A parent at LBCS, Erik Rose has offered to teach a club style music program at LBCS. This program would be open to 5th graders and up. Mrs. Uptain and Mr. Rose will meet to further talk about the program. The SSA members voted having the music program with Erik Rose.
- V. SSA corner in the newsletter: Ron has been working on a constant SSA corner in the newsletter.

- VI. School Survey & Constant Contact: Ron Howard has been looking into a new software program that will make surveys easier and will help to maintain constant contact with the parents. He will be trying it out soon to see how well it works. Ron was also going to look into the possibility of using it to log in our volunteer hours.
- VII. PTC Update: Barbra gave a brief update. The jog a thon was successful. She is also working on a new food program for Tuesdays. The auction will take place at the Blue Goose this year. If anyone has any ideas for large action items please let her know. Cindy Uptain was going to ask Pizza Factory about a time share they have in Mexico.
- VIII. Kindergarten Lottery: The cut off for parents to turn in the forms for the lottery is November 20th. Cindy is getting permission to have the Lottery December 2, 2009.
