

Attitudes Count....

While we want to develop the Learner Profile, Concepts, and a vast array of Knowledge and Skills, these alone do not constitute an internationally-minded student within the PYP program. The IB Attitudes are a vital focus in the development of positive attitudes towards people, the environment, and learning.

Appreciation

LBCS students notice the beauty of people and the world.

Commitment

LBCS students stick to the job.

Confidence

LBCS students believe in myself.

Cooperation

LBCS students work with others.

Creativity

LBCS students use my imagination.

Curiosity

LBCS students wonder about the world.

Empathy

LBCS students understand how other people feel.

Enthusiasm

LBCS students enjoy learning and life!

Independence

LBCS students can think and work on my own.

Integrity

I tell the truth.

Respect

LBCS students treat others the way I want to be treated.

Tolerance

LBCS students know there are many kinds of people.
